

Stand Up Gift Exchange

Directions: Each player stands up when they hear a statement that applies to them. Everyone standing exchanges gifts and then sits down. Gifts may be traded more than once to ensure that everyone has a new gift. Once all the statements have been read, each player opens their gift

- You bought a Christmas present before Thanksgiving
- You have an inflatable or automated decoration in your yard
- You've performed in a holiday program at school or church
- You put up Christmas lights on the outside of your house
- You have more than one Christmas tree in your house
- You watched a Hallmark Christmas movie in December
- You started listening to Christmas music before Thanksgiving
- You drove around looking at Christmas lights
- You've seen the movie "A Christmas Story:
- You have an angel on the top of your tree
- You shopped online for Christmas gifts
- You own a ugly Christmas sweater
- You took your kids to see Santa
- You went Black Friday shopping
- You built a Gingerbread House
- You've never had eggnog
- You baked Christmas cookies
- You have an Elf on the Shelf
- You've eaten fruit cake
- You're on the naughty list
- Your on the nice list

